Strike Action – February / March 2023

As many of you will have seen the NEU have announced industrial action by their union members in February and March. Industrial action procedures mean that teachers in the NEU do not have to declare their intentions to strike, however at this stage, it would appear that there are no plans for industrial action at our school during February and March. We will let parents know at the earliest convenience if anything should change.

Emotional Well-Being Support

We would like to take this opportunity to raise awareness for a wonderful organisation called Compass Go that works closely with our school, providing support for pupils struggling with any aspect of their social or emotional well-being. They regularly lead whole-class children's workshops but also offer more specific sessions for smaller groups and individual children regarding worry management, low mood, sleep difficulties, attachment, friendships or managing strong emotions such as anger. We also have Mrs Carlton, our Emotional Literacy Support Assistant (ELSA), who is in school every day for children to talk to if they have any worries or need a little confidence boost. If you feel your child may benefit from either some group or individual support from Compass Go or Mrs Carlton, please speak with Mrs Ranshaw who will be able to arrange this for you.

We would be grateful if parents could complete a short survey for Compass Go, regarding the types of support you would find beneficial. Please visit our website and click on the link which can be found in the 'Parents' tab under 'Emotional Well-Being'. Thank you.

Reminder - Class Worship at St. Peter's Church

Each Wednesday classes take turns to plan and deliver their own worship at St Peter's Church and we are thrilled to be able to once again invite parents/guardians to attend these, starting after half term. If you would like to attend your child's worship, please drop your child off at school that morning as normal and make your way to church. The class will then arrive at church at around 9.10am. We look forward to seeing you there!

World Book Day – Thursday 2nd March 2023

World Book Day changes lives through a love of books and reading and this year we are inviting children to come to school on Thursday 2nd March 2023 dressed as their favourite book character! World Book Day helps to promote reading for pleasure, offering every child and young person the opportunity to have a book of their own. Reading is such an important part of a child's learning and development and we want to encourage and foster a life-long habit of reading for pleasure. Look out for your £1.00 World Book Day voucher, coming soon!
